

Permanent Supportive Housing Application

New Moms Housing Quick Facts

- For young moms, 18-24 years old, with children.
- For families experiencing homelessness.
- This is permanent housing.
- All residents pay rent based on income.
- All residents partnered with a family coach.
- For everyone's safety, no over night visitors

How does the application work?

CHA manages the application, waitlist, and process - not New Moms. There are 3 essential steps to the application process:

1. Complete a housing assessment with "Coordinated Entry" if you are not in a shelter or connected to agency who provides supports like a drop-in center (15-30 mins). If you are, skip Step 1
2. Apply to CHA's Project Based Housing Voucher or "PBV" (30 mins).
3. After completing steps 2 and 3, contact New Moms by email (5 mins).

Follow the Application Steps Below In Order

Step 1: Call the Coordinated Entry Call Center at 312-361-1707 to complete a housing assessment.

- Call center hours: Monday through Friday from 8:30am –4:00pm
- If you are not connected to an agency working with people experiencing homelessness I 312-361-1707 to complete a housing assessment. And then call every 90 days to update.
- The housing assessment puts your name on the waitlist for ALL Youth Transitional Housing Programs that you are eligible for.
- You can also call Facing Forward at 312-785-3694 and they are open Tuesday and Thursday evenings until 7:30
- This may or may not lead to a housing option and does not provide immediate housing. If you live in Chicago and in need of immediate shelter, please call 3-1-1 to get transportation to a shelter.

Step 2: Apply for CHA's Project Based Housing Voucher ("PBV") Online. Follow each step in order.

Start Here! Open Online Application at www.applyonline.thecha.org
