How does the application work?

CHA manages the application, waitlist, and process - not New Moms. There are 3 essential steps to the application process:

1. Complete a housing assessment with "Coordinated Entry" if you are not in a shelter (10-15 mins).
2. Apply to CHA's Project Based Housing Voucher or "PBV" (30 mins).
3. After completing steps 2 and 3, contact New Moms (15 mins).

Follow the Application Steps Below In Order

Step 1: Call the Coordinated Entry Call Center at 312-361-1707 to complete a housing assessment.

- Call center hours: Monday through Friday from 8:30am - 4:00pm
- If you are sleeping in a shelter, outside, in a vehicle, or any place not meant to be inhabited, call 312-361-1707 to complete a housing assessment.
- The housing assessment puts your name on the waitlist for ALL Youth Transitional Housing Programs that you are eligible for.
- This may or may not lead to a housing option and does not provide immediate housing. If you are in need of immediate shelter, please call 3-1-1 to get transportation to a shelter.

Step 2: Apply for CHA's Project Based Housing Voucher ("PBV") Online. Follow each step in order.
