Yanin joined New Moms' family support program when her son, Mateo, was four months old. She said she loves her weekly home visits because her coach Ayeshah has taken the time to get to know her and Mateo. Yanin said the best part about the Family Support program is that it has helped her bond with her son.

Through her time with New Moms, Yanin has also realized not to be so hard on herself when it comes to her role as a mother to her son.

"I learned that I'm a good mom. You feel like you have to do everything perfect, but you know sometimes you are going to have bad days with the baby. Sometimes you are going to get frustrated and that's okay."

Yanin is finishing courses at an esthetician school and once she finishes, her goal is to start her own business.
